The First Deputy Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund (IMF), Mr David Lipton paid a courtesy call on the Governor and Management of the Bank of Sierra Leone on 27th January, 2020. He was accompanied by Mr Dominique Desruelle, Deputy Director of the African Department and Ms Karen Ongley, Mission Chief for Sierra Leone.

During the engagement, the Governor Professor Kelfala M Kallon expressed appreciation for the visit and the cooperation between Sierra Leone and the International Monetary Fund. He mentioned the ongoing technical assistance and training which was provided by the International Monetary Fund to the Bank of Sierra Leone.

Governor Kelfala M Kallon also updated the First Deputy Managing Director of the IMF and his team on BSL’s operations and recent economic developments in the country. Other topics were discussed such as the efficacy of the Bank’s monetary policy, financial sector stability, financial inclusion and central bank governance.

Secretary’s Department

27th January, 2020